

International events on exchange of experience to be held under the NBU's initiative in 2024-2025

No.	Period and format of event	Event name	Event details
2024
1	20–21 June Kyiv, Ukraine, hybrid format	The 8th Annual Research Conference of the National Bank of Ukraine and Narodowy Bank Polski Navigating the Changing Landscape: Central Banks in a New Normal	Objective: involvement of representatives of central banks, the academic community, international financial institutions, and well-known research centers into discussion on topical issues related to central bank activities in a new normal Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • post-war recovery through European integration • sanctions: enforcement and compliance • central banking in a new normal • role of supply and demand shocks • income, wealth, and inflation inequality • labor market structural changes • transition to sustainable central bank practices • supply chain disruptions • new dimensions of policy: regional and urban revitalization • role of new technologies in rebuilding financial markets Participants: representatives of central banks, IFIs, academic community, other analytical and research centers. Around 200–400 participants
2	November, Kyiv, Ukraine, online format	Annual International Roundtable Strategic Development and Change Management of Financial Sector Regulators	Objective: sharing and spreading the practices of strategic development, long-term and short-term planning, implementation of central bank strategies. Automation of strategic development processes and change management Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • role of a central bank and financial sector regulators in ensuring the country's sustainable development • effective cooperation of a central bank and financial sector regulators; cooperation between public authorities to attain common goals

			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • drafting a strategic plan (techniques, best practices); examples of successful central bank transformations • strategy implementation; factors of influence on the central bank strategy automation of strategic planning processes Participants: representatives of foreign central banks and financial sector regulators, participants of the previous roundtables, and international experts on strategic planning (up to 100 participants)
3	December, Kyiv, Ukraine, hybrid format	Workshop Monetary Policy in Developing Countries	Objective: discussion with the international professional community of the topical monetary policy issues and challenges that developing countries are facing today Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • peculiarities and challenges for monetary policy in developing countries Participants: representatives of central banks, IFIs, academic community, other analytical and research centers
2025
6	May–June, Kyiv, Ukraine, a hybrid format	Annual Research Conference of the National Bank of Ukraine	Objective: to bring together leading experts and representatives of central banks, the academic community, think tanks, and international organizations to discuss and resolve issues related to the activities of central banks. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • use of artificial intelligence in central banks • comprehensive approach to the central bank's policy • other topics covering specific areas of the central bank's activities. Participants: representatives of central banks, academic community, and international financial organizations
7	September, Kyiv, Ukraine, a hybrid format	International Research Conference on Money & Banking: History of Savings and Charity	Objective: to create a permanent platform for fostering scientific discussions and publishing research on topical issues related to the history of money circulation and banking in Europe. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • money museums within national banks from the perspective of the contemporary museum environment and modern forms of museum work • history of banks and banking as a central theme for money museums. Participants: specialists in the history of cash circulation and banking, economic historians, banknote designers, museum experts, museum specialists from national banks

8	October- November, Kyiv, Ukraine, virtual	Workshop Monetary Policy in Emerging Markets	Objective: to bring together leading experts and representatives of central banks, academic community, think tanks and international organizations to discuss issues related to monetary policy in emerging markets. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • financial stability and monetary policy amid a structural liquidity surplus • inflation expectations management and communication • coordination of fiscal and monetary policies Participants: representatives of central banks, academic community, and international financial organizations
9	November, Kyiv, Ukraine, virtual	Annual International Roundtable Strategic Development and Change Management of Financial Sector Regulators	Objective: sharing and spreading the best practices in strategic response to the changing environment, introduction of innovations in central banks, in particular, the use of artificial intelligence tools in the organization's development strategy; strategic risk management, organization of the strategic plan implementation process and monitoring of the implementation status. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • examples of successful central bank transformation • sharing expertise on mistakes and successful examples in strategic management, including in the face of dynamic change • management of strategic risks • strategic approach to the introduction of artificial intelligence in the activities of central banks. Participants: representatives of foreign central banks and financial sector regulators, international financial institution, participants of the previous roundtables, and international experts on strategic planning (up to 100 participants)